Presents

FetchNote

- FetchNote retrieves digital annotations from your PDF and outputs them onto a newly generated summary file.
- We strive to make FetchNote compatible with all PDF-based note-taking apps, such as Adobe Acrobat and Apple Preview.
- PDF files can be uploaded on our website using a web browser, such as Chrome and Safari, while on your desktop/mobile/tablet device.
- FetchNote uses Microsoft's encrypted cloud storage to temporarily store your files for processing.
- While processing your PDF, this app will pay special attention to the type of annotations you used.
- You also have the option to use AI assist to automatically highlight or paraphrase PDF text based on your topics of interest.

Select the document type that best resembles your annotated PDF.

If you don't have time to take notes, you can use AI assist to highlight or paraphrase text for you.

This drop-down menu lets you switch between AI highlighting and AI paraphrasing.

Click "Add Topic" to specify what topic(s) you would like AI to highlight or paraphrase.

The screenshot displays the FetchNote interface with a sidebar on the left containing navigation options: Hide, General, Transcript, Literature (selected), Media, Presentation, Dated Records (2014), Download, Settings, and Lock. The top navigation bar includes the FetchNote logo and links for Upload, Download, Support, Pricing, and a demo dropdown. A status bar shows 2/5 uploads, a +9 bonus, 20K tokens, and 0/1 items in queue. The main content area is divided into four steps:

- Step 1: Input Format (Default page per sheet: One page; Annotation Author: Optional) and Output Format (Output sequence: By page layout; Page number position: Above text; Font type and font size: Calibri, 11; Left/Center/Right Header: type here).
- Step 2 (optional): AI Assist (Fetch topics: On). This step is highlighted with yellow arrows. It includes:
 - AI Model: GPT-3.5 Turbo
 - Format: Direct quote via highlight (with a dropdown arrow pointing to it) and Cyan italic
 - Page Range: 1 To 10,000
 - Topics: Two text input fields for "First example topic of interest" and "Second example topic of interest". A yellow arrow points to the "Add Topic" button at the bottom right of this section.
 - Buttons: Import, Clear, and Add Topic.
- Step 3: Upload PDF (Bonus Upload: Off) with a "Browse..." button and a drop zone.
- Step 4: A "Proceed to Download Page" button.
